I' Leary & Co., Nos. 4 and 5 Astor House, New york, Hatters, will introduce on Wednesday, the 21st inst., York, Harristo, and article of gentlemen's Black Fur Hats, a new stack, in explanation of which we submit the following remarks; Since the origin of our establishment, we have had in since the original control of the distinct purposes of the distinct purposes is our manufactures, viz: Economy in price, Improvement of quality and taste, and the perfecting a STANDARD OF PASHIONS FOR THE UNITED STATES, indepen ent of the European, all of which have been successfully specied, resulting in a most important saving to the community at large, and an equally satisfactory remoneration nounce of the consequent upon the extensive patronage which we have ressived.

Our improved FIVE DOLLAR HATS, so superior material, elegance of style and perfect finish, that immedistely upon their introduction, they became not only preentent at home, but celebrated in London and Paris, and eled the highest encomiums of the Press there, soon supeneded the $10 Hats previously worn here by the first east of our citizens. This article, now fully established as the highest standard, is so extensively known and univer-ally approved by the fashionable and genteel wearers and gue economists, that we will not now allude further to its perils, except to announce that we have improved its beaugrand value the present season beyond any that we have beretofore produced.

At the urgent solicitations of many of our customers, who were anxious to economise in the first cost, and yet desirous p avail themselves of the peculiar style and fluish characeristic of our fabrics, we have for some time past made dillentefforts to accomplish their wishes, and consequently have just perfected the new article of Hats as announced above. They will be composed of superior materials, the workmanship will be of the first order, and although fully equal to Hats formerly retailed at $6 and $7, they will be sid at $3,621 each, a price not only commensurate to the gesent pecuniary depression, and far less than their intrinworth, but infinitely cheaper, when the respective qualiis are compared, than any which have ever before been dered to the public.

Parchasers are assured, in advance, that these Hats will not incur the objection, viz: " dear at the price," currently argued sgainst most low priced goods. LEARY & CO. Astor House, Sept. 15th, 1842. s26 6tis way, would inform the gentlemen of New York that his Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspecion and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our clinate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others have sees fit to follow his lead, and that now the following o European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $5.50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashian and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city Buthe wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are misd at this price, but at $1.50. These he recommend sequal to any hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and deallenges for them a comparisen with any other.

Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Wister hats and judge of the figure of the first that whether the cheapest or the bet flat is desired, the inquirer will here be sausfied. Try him. (*201) O. FISH, 157 Broadway.

D'Gentlemen's Fall Hats .- WARNOCK'S Filt pattern Hats are now offered for sale, comprising the Moleskin, Nutria and Cassimere Beaver PARISIAN STYLE OF HATS.

The attention of gentlemen is particularly invited to the obscriber's beautifully fabricated Silk Hats, better known a "Warnock's Moleskin Hats." This article, since its ineduction, has rapidly acquired and successfully maintains apopularity, produced by the subscriber in a manner alagether superior to any of the kind that has been or is now where the public, and is worthy of notice as possessing all bequalities of a superior bat, as lightness, beauty of finish ermanency of color, and capacity for service.

That the Moleskin Silk Hat possesses the very elen nationsly aimed at in the production of a perfect article, aneeds only to be stated that the foundation or body is monisciared from the finest description of stock, and the plash or covering of the finest quality silk, than which, it will readily be admitted, there is nothing of the nature of fabric more durable. To gentlemen who have not given the above hats a trial, it is remarked that they have been for years the most popular, and are now almost exclusively the fashionable Hat of Paris-this, to say the least, is a strong reconnendation. To such gentlemen as have preference for French manufacture, it is remarked that from the sub acriber's observations during a recent visit to the French metropolis, he is enabled to say, that though in one or two particulars the French excel, yet in the main, the article sold by him is superior. The pattern for the fall and winter of symmetry and beauty.

FOUR DOLLAR MATS. The peculiar condition of the monetary affairs of the pres set time, demanding of the mass of the community the adoption of retrenchment and economy, the subscribe eem Respections, for the time being, to deviate somewhat fon the system hitherto strictly adhered to in the conduc-tion his business, (that of selling none other than the first (uly,) now offers to gentlemen disposed to economise, a upor hat at the moderate price of Four Dollars. This mis possesses in a large measure the constituent parts of spat costly, prepared with all their neatness and exter-Blash, and are sold at a small advance upon the cost They are " Huts for the Times."

mTTb&8 2wis WARNOCK, 170 Broadway. D'Spencer's Imitation Moleskin Hat. This popular article is commended to the public as pecafarly desirable, at the present time, for its economy. degance and durability, it competes successfully with the most costly Hats worn. Price $3 25. SPENCER, als if Fashionable Hatter, No. 245 Broadway.

IT Fall Style of Gentlemen's Hats. - BIRD. corner of Pine and Nassan-streets, has now ready for inspec-tion and sale the Fall Standard Pattern for Gentlemen's llats, September 1.

P Hate! Hats! Hats!-FALL FASHION .-The substriber invites the attention of the Beau Monde to his beautiful, graceful, and tasteful low bell-crowned flat, being the only really fashionable article of the kind extant, bought cannot expect but initiaters will spring up, and cam the hench to fis own original conceptions.

To say that these Hats surpass any thing of the kind in point style, finish, and graceful appearance, is to claim magnetian is warranted by an experience of twenty years to the say that the say of th is Debasiness, and the invites gentlemen who study grace and desires, to call and examine for themselves. A large assertment of Traveling Trunks, Carpet Bars, latters and, in fact, every thing necessary for a gentlement reveling outfit, may also be found at

E. BLOOMER'S, 179 Broadway, acit is a coposite Howard's fiotel.

D'Fall Fashion fluts now ready-Watson's Sa Hats, only $2.50, are recommended to the public not say for economy but as possessing all the elegance of contarof the most costly; combining utility with beauty; this ticle cannot fail to commend itself to the connolsseur as self-seconomist. Also, Moleskin Hats, at $3.00; Beavers 144.50; Cassimere and Nutria Hats, at $5.50 each; these techs standard prices, and he need only remark that by taking himself to one quality and price for each descripant for the contact of the contact Taging himself to one quality and price for each descripand hats, he is enabled to invaish a superior article at mastar helow those at which Hats of the same desaripantenow vending by other manufacturers.

A seady and permanent increase of patronage for the altyears is a sufficient indication of public judgement, indicating the best test of their merits.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

"Large streams from little fountains flow; Great aches from little toe corns grow." Though they may be both small and young,

Or though they 're old and have acked long Yet look to this, and you will see A sure and certain remedy. One trial, and your corns are cured,

And no more pain need be endured; And you shall walk with ease and grade, And henceforth wear a smilling face. But if, perchance, the first should fail, A second surely will prevail:

A third was ne'er applied—cause why: It cures when once or twice you try. The ladies who would walk the street

With air genteel and angel feet,

Had better keep on hand a store, Lest they should himp for everyone. The author is prepried to show the country—I went, but continued to get worse every day —my physicians said 1 had the Liver Complaint and affection of the large. They pronounced my case incurable—they opposed by retarning home, as they thought I would die an the way, and only have to be brought back to be buried, as it was our family burying place. In this state I returned to the city, without any hopes of relief. My symptoms were pains in my sides, shooting through the top of my shoulder blades, pain and faintness at the pit of my stomach, backing cough, great distress in my back, heating, raiped questioned to the cough, great distress in my back, heating, raiped questioned to the cough, great distress in my back, heating, and instomach, backing cough, great distress in my back, heetle, raised considerable matter, feet very much swollen, and indeed every symptom of Consumption. I was suffering in this state when my husband saw an advertisement in the San, of a person cured under your treatment. I then resalved to try the same remody, as a last effort, and a most liappy result followed.
